

The data of 4 healthy people using the P300 speller is provided (S1 to S4). The classification in this case is a two-class problem: non-target (-1) vs. target (1). As usual during P300 paradigms, the subject should only pay attention to the target stimulus and ignore the non-target stimulus.

